

Concerts on the Quad series returns, Mondays beginning July 3

Stephanie Kohl Ringle (<http://news.illinoisstate.edu/author/srkohlr/>) May 23, 2017

Concerts on the Quad 2016.

Beginning on July 3 and taking place every Monday at 7 p.m. during the month of July, this summer's Concert on the Quad series will feature returning favorites such as "Singing under the Stars" and an "Evening of Jazz" as well as newcomers to the Illinois State University Quad.

All concerts are free and open to the public and take place on the east side of Cook Hall (the castle) on the Quad. Concertgoers should bring lawn chairs or blankets for seating.

♦ July 3
Future Stuff

The series opens with this young duo - often described as Tedeschi Trucks Band meets The White Stripes meets Shakey Graves - whose fun vintage folk/pop style keeps audiences on the edge of their seats while tearing at heart strings.

♦ July 10
Ameranouche

The award-winning Ameranouche (pronounced uh-Mare-uh-noosh) plays a hot mix of acoustic Gypsy-inspired music with Flamenco, Bebop, and Jazz swing influences.

♦ July 17
April Verch Band

Bow. Feet. Vox. A trifecta of talent, April Verch tours with world-class musicians as a trio, stepping, singing, and fiddling with a fresh and feisty approach to deep North American traditions.

♦ July 24
Singing Under the Stars

Illinois State University faculty and guests sing favorites from the operatic and Broadway stages.

♦ July 31
Evening of Jazz

Enjoy a night of contemporary jazz featuring David Hoffman & Friends.

ALL CONCERTS 7 p.m.
