

Group distributes grants in Atlanta

APRIL 27, 2015 8:00 AM • PANTAGRAPH STAFF

ATLANTA — Atlanta Betterment Group has distributed grants to 10 Atlanta organizations.

Grant funds come from interest earned from the Endow Atlanta endowment fund, managed by the Illinois Prairie Community Foundation. This year, $3,225 was distributed.

Recipients were Atlanta Flower Buds-City of Atlanta, $100, for planting on Arch Street;

Atlanta Public Library, $500, elevator repair; Atlanta Memorial Park District, $500, electrical upgrade at Community House; Atlanta Rotary Club, $200, Habitat for Humanity project; Olympia South PTO, $300, butterfly garden; Atlanta Community Band, $100, new music and director pay.

Also, the Ladies Cemetery Association of Atlanta, $500, headstone and monument repair; City of Atlanta, $225, paint swimming pool; Atlanta Historic Commission, $500, restore Carriage House; and Atlanta Christian Church, $300, sponsorship for Christian Men's Conference.